CITIZEN COMMENTS

David Wohlford stated that he almost got hit at the intersection across from Brierwood coming off the mountain. He stated that the person was coming out of Brierwood and did not stop and he almost turned around in the gravels trying to stop. He stated the same thing happened when he was going up the hill. He stated that the same happens at Fairway/Summit and this needed to be looked into. He stated that he was concerned about Fincastle and the membership and setting tee times, etc. He reminded council that it was a public facility. He stated that the contractor doing the gas line work had their VA Class C license but was still in violation as of today.

TOWN MANAGERS REPORT

Bluefield Iron & Metal Building Update

Mr. Watson stated that Phase I & II had both been completed at the Bluefield Iron & Metal Building. He stated that a tank was found and cleared and did not have to be registered. He stated that he spoke with the engineer and there was leftover money and he would put together a packet to ask the state for more. He stated that once it was cleared up they would receive a certificate from the State but the property was good. He stated that it would be a maximum of $10k-20k investment. He stated that they found a detention basin with lead in it and we would have to excavate soil, haul and dump it at the site. He stated that the building close to the road, the Town was using and he would like to put in LED lights and that the big metal building had 2 operable cranes and we were storing some of our stuff in it. He stated that the dome building on the end had new electrical, lighting and had 3-4 garage bays but needed a little roof work done. He stated that he would like to start looking at places to go into this facility after it was cleaned up and graveled.

Richwood Property Update

Mr. Watson stated that several months ago we had contacted DEQ about making the Richwood Property a fishing area but this was not something that could be done in a year. He stated that he would like to clean up the brush and make it look nice and that a pole had been set near the road to run elevation. He stated that it was a flood area and he would be hiring an engineer in the next few weeks. He stated that it would be mowed on a regular basis for anyone to use.

COUNCIL COMMENTS

Mr. Holt talked about what they had accomplished in Richmond. He stated that they took it out on the Sheriff's Deputies but thanked the board for standing up to them. He encouraged them to continue contacting the Legislators especially with things at the local level.

Mr. Bailey had none.

Mr. Presley thanked Mr. Watson for the update. He stated that he loved the Police Department's video and gave a shout out to all of the Town employees.

Mayor Harris stated on page 2 in the BDT there was an article where Katherine Johnson had passed away. He stated that the Town presented her with a plaque last year at the Graham Manor.

VIRGINIA: AT A REGULAR MEETING OF THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA HELD AT THE COUNCIL CHAMBERS OF THE TOWN HALL IN BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA ON THE 10TH DAY OF MARCH, 2020.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND ARTICLE III (BUILDING CODE) OF CHAPTER 10 (BUILDINGS AND BUILDING REGULATIONS) OF THE CODE OF ORDINANCES, TOWN OF BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA that Article III of Chapter 10 of the Code of Ordinances, Town of Bluefield, Virginia is hereby amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE III. BUILDING CODE

Sec. 10-71. Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code.

The Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code, as amended from time to time, including all subparts, is hereby adopted and incorporated herein by reference to establish rules and regulations governing the construction, alteration, removal, demolition, equipment, use, occupancy, location, and maintenance of buildings and structures within the corporate limits of the town.

At least one (1) copy of the current Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code shall be kept in the building department of the town, and such copy shall be made available for public inspection during regular business hours, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. EST, Monday through Friday.

The Virginia Uniform Statewide Building Code may be referred to as “the building code” throughout this article.

Sec. 10-72. Enforcement and appeals.

- (a) Official action. The building official of the town is charged with the enforcement of the building code, and he/she shall have all the powers, duties, and privileges provided for such enforcement under applicable law.
- (b) Administrative practices. The building official of the town shall establish procedures, policies, and requirements necessary to ensure the effective and lawful administration and enforcement of this article.
- (c) Appeals. A Board of Building Code Appeals is hereby established, and shall be known as the “Board of Building Code Appeals of the Town of Bluefield, Virginia”. Such board shall hear all appeals arising from the application of the building code.

Sec. 10-73. Permit required; fees.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the issuance of a building permit and any other required permit(s) shall be required before any person, entity, or organization begins any activity subject to the building code. An application process to obtain a building permit shall be developed in accordance with Section 10-72 of this article. A fee payable to the town shall be required for the issuance of a building permit, and the fee schedule for such permit shall be set by the town council.

The building official of the town is charged with the responsibility of ensuring all requirements under the building code and other applicable law are satisfied before a building permit is issued pursuant to the authority of this article.

Sec. 10-74. The Board of Building Code Appeals.

(a) Membership of the Board of Building Code Appeals. The Board of Building Code Appeals shall consist of at least five (5) members but not more than seven (7) members. All members shall be appointed by the town council upon a recommendation of the building official of the town, and shall serve terms of one (1) year, two (2) years, and three (3) years, divided as nearly equal as possible between the membership. Reappointments shall be for terms of three (3) years each. Vacancies shall be filled by the town council upon a recommendation of the building official of the town, and shall be for the remainder of the applicable unexpired term. Members shall be selected on the basis of their ability to render fair and competent decisions regarding the application of the building code, and shall to the extent possible, represent different occupational fields relating to the construction industry. At least one (1) member should be an experienced builder, at least one (1) member should be an experienced property manager, and at least one (1) member should be a Registered Design Professional. Employees and officers of the town shall not serve as members of the board.

(b) Officers of the Board of Building Code Appeals.

(1) Chairman. The Board of Building Code Appeals shall elect a Chairman from its membership whose term of office shall be for a period of one (1) calendar year. The Chairman shall hold office until their successor has been elected, and in the event they are absent from a meeting or hearing, an acting Chairman shall be elected to act in place of the absent Chairman. The Chairman or acting Chairman, as applicable, shall preside over all meetings and hearings, execute all documents requiring a signature on behalf of the board, direct appeal hearings, make evidentiary rulings during appeal hearings, and oversee the record of all the proceedings of the board.

(2) Secretary. The Board of Building Code Appeals shall elect a Secretary from its membership whose term of office shall be for a period of one (1) calendar year. The Secretary shall maintain detailed records of all proceedings, meetings, hearings, records, membership, and officers of the board. The Secretary shall further certify all documents executed by the Chairman or acting Chairman.

- (c) Meetings of the Board of Building Code Appeals. The Board of Building Code Appeals shall meet at least once each calendar year or as otherwise required by the building code. Meeting dates, times, and locations shall be set by the building official of the town.
- (d) Appeals to the Board of Building Code Appeals.
- (1) Right of Appeal. Any person aggrieved by the application of the building code or the refusal to grant a modification to the provisions of the building code may appeal to the Board of Building Code Appeals. Such appeal shall be perfected by filing a written application for appeal with the building department of the town within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of the decision being appealed. An application form shall be developed under the authority of Section 10-72 of this article, and all applications submitted shall, at a minimum, contain the name and address of the owner of the building or structure at issue, the name and address of the individual making such appeal, and a copy of the decision being appealed. Every application for appeal, upon being received by the building department of the town, shall immediately be marked and dated as received.
 - (2) Waiver of Appeal. Failure to submit a complete application for appeal within the required time period shall constitute a waiver to the Right of Appeal.
 - (3) Notice of Hearing. The building official of the town shall send by certified mail a Notice of Hearing to all addresses provided in the application for appeal. The Notice of Hearing shall indicate the date, time, and location of the appeal hearing, and shall be sent to the addresses in the application for appeal at least fourteen (14) days before the date of the appeal hearing.
 - (4) Conduct of Members of the Board of Building Code Appeals. No member of the Board of Building Code Appeals shall hear an appeal in which that member has a conflict of interest in accordance with the Virginia State and Local Government Conflict of Interest Act. No member shall discuss the substance of an appeal with any other party(ies) or their representative(s) prior to a hearing being held.
 - (5) Appeal Hearing. The Board of Building Code Appeals shall hold an appeal hearing within thirty (30) days of a complete and timely application for appeal being received by the building department of the town. All hearings shall be open to the public, and the appellant, their representative, the locality's representative, and any other person whose interests are affected by the decision in question shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the board. A quorum of the board must be present for an appeal hearing to be held, and in the event a quorum does not exist, then the hearing shall be continued to a date where a quorum of the board will be present.
- (e) Decisions of the Board of Building Code Appeals. The Board of Building Code Appeals shall have the power to affirm, reverse, or modify any decision presented upon appeal. Such decision shall be made by a majority vote of the board, and shall be final if no further appeal is made. All decisions of the board shall be explained in writing, signed by the Chairman or acting Chairman, certified by the Secretary, and retained as a record of the town. In addition to any other information therein, all final decisions of the board regarding an appeal shall include the following statement: "Any person who was a party to the appeal may appeal to the State Review Board by submitting an application to such Board within 21 calendar days upon receipt by certified mail of this decision. Application forms are available from the Office of the State Review Board, 600 East Main Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219, (804) 371-7150." Copies of such written decision shall be sent by the building official of the town by certified mail to all parties involved in the appeal.

- (f) Appeal of Decisions of the Board of Building Code Appeals. After a final determination of the Board of Building Code Appeals, any person aggrieved by such decision may appeal to the State Review Board. Such appeal shall be in accordance with Virginia law.

Sec. 10-75. Violation a misdemeanor; limitation on prosecutions.

- (a) It shall be unlawful for any person to violate any provision of the building code. Any such violation shall be deemed a misdemeanor and any person convicted thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,500.00. Additionally, each day the violation continues after conviction or the court-ordered abatement period has expired shall constitute a separate offense. If the violation remains uncorrected at the time of the conviction, then the court shall order the violator to abate or remedy the violation. Except as otherwise provided by the court, any such violator shall abate or remedy the violation within six (6) months of the date of conviction. Each day during which the violation continues after the court-ordered abatement period has ended shall constitute a separate offense. Any person convicted of a second offense committed within less than five (5) years after a first offense under this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than $1,000.00 nor more than $2,500.00. Any person convicted of a second offense committed within a period of five (5) to ten (10) years of a first offense under this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500.00 nor more than $2,500.00. Any person convicted of a third or subsequent offense involving the same property committed within ten (10) years of an offense under this section after having been at least twice previously convicted shall be punished by confinement in jail for not more than ten (10) days and a fine of not less than $2,500.00 nor more than $5,000.00, either or both. No portion of the fine imposed for such third or subsequent offense committed within ten (10) years of an offense under this section shall be suspended.
- (b) Any person violating any building code provision relating to the removal or the covering of lead-based paint which poses a hazard to the health of pregnant women and children under the age of six (6) years who occupy the premises shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not more than $2,500.00. If the court convicts pursuant to this subsection and sets a time by which such hazard must be abated, then each day the hazard remains unabated after the time set for the abatement has expired shall constitute a separate violation of the building code. Upon a reasonable showing to the court by a landlord, as defined in the Code of Virginia of 1950, § 55.1-1200 as amended, that such landlord is financially unable to abate the lead-based paint hazard, the court shall order any rental agreement related to the affected premises terminated effective thirty (30) days from the entry of the court order. For the purposes of the preceding sentence, termination of the rental agreement shall not be deemed noncompliance by the landlord pursuant to the Code of Virginia of 1950, § 55.1-1234, as amended.

- (c) Any person who refuses to stop work upon receipt of a stop work order, or removes a violation notice shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $2,500.00.
- (d) Prosecutions under the building code shall be commenced within the applicable limitations periods described under the Code of Virginia of 1950, § 19.2-8, as amended.

Sec. 10-76. Severability.

If any section, provision, or portion of this article is held to be invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, then that decision shall in no way affect the remaining sections, provisions, or portions of this article. The invalid section, provision, or portion thereof shall be severable.

Secs. 10-77—10-100. Reserved.

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA that the Council of the Town of Bluefield, Virginia adopts this ordinance on this 10th day of March, 2020.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA that as shown above, Article III of Chapter 10 of the Code of Ordinances, Town of Bluefield, Virginia, is amended and reenacted and any previous action of this Council inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance is hereby repealed to extent of such inconsistency.

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA that this ordinance shall be effective on the 10th day of April, 2020.

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA that the Council of the Town of Bluefield, Virginia authorizes Donald R. Harris, the Mayor of the Town of Bluefield, Virginia, to execute this ordinance on behalf of said Council, and the Town Clerk of the Town of Bluefield, Virginia shall attest the same.

IT IS SO ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE TOWN OF BLUEFIELD, VIRGINIA on this 10th day of March, 2020.
